Fleur is an experienced commercial and tax litigator focusing on company and securities law, class actions, taxation disputes, contract disputes, regulatory and disciplinary action, commissions of inquiry, and professional negligence claims.

With over 18 years' litigation experience, Fleur has acted for both corporate clients and individuals in the financial services, oil and gas, mineral resources, property and construction, professional services, integrated resorts and automotive sectors. She has been involved in investigations and proceedings by the Australian Securities and Investments Commission, the Australian Taxation Office, the Tax Practitioners Board, the State Revenue Office, the Fair Work Commission and the Victorian Legal Services Board. She is a member of the Commercial Bar Association.

Fleur practises across all types of taxation law at the State and Federal level, including income tax, superannuation (including SMSF), capital gains, GST, stamp duty, payroll tax, land tax, disciplinary matters and tax prosecutions. She is a member of the Tax Bar Association and holds a Master of Taxation from Melbourne University.

Fleur is regularly briefed in the Federal Court of Australia, the Supreme Court, the Administrative Appeals Tribunal, and has appeared in the High Court of Australia. As well as practicing in Victoria, Fleur has acted in cases in New South Wales, Western Australia, and Tasmania.

Prior to joining the Bar in 2013, Fleur was a Senior Associate in the Dispute Resolution Group at King & Wood Mallesons.

Fleur holds a Bachelor of Laws with first class honours from the University of Sydney. She also holds a Post Graduate Diploma in Business Administration and a Bachelor of Arts with first class honours. While studying law at Sydney University, Fleur was a paralegal at the HIH Insurance Royal Commission.
