

Tidja Joseph

Tidja Joseph practises in intellectual property law, privacy law and technology and data-related disputes.

QUALIFICATIONS

Bachelor of Laws (Monash University) P +61 3 9225 8558
Bachelor of Arts (Monash University) F +61 3 9225 8668
Bachelor of Human Sciences E tidja.joseph@vicbar.com.au
(Medicine) (Monash University)

CORRESPONDENCE

CHAMBERS

Emmerson Chambers
Level 18 Room 8
200 Queen Street
Melbourne VIC 3000

COMMERCIAL LAW

Competition | Consumer Law | Contractual Disputes | Energy & Resources

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

Appellate | Confidential Information | Copyright & Designs | Information Technology | Patents | Privacy & Data Protection | Telecommunications | Trade Marks

Tidja comes to the Bar with a broad range of experience, having acted for large corporate entities to technology start-ups across a range of industries including energy and resources, infrastructure, technology, telecommunications, insurance and government.

Prior to joining the Bar, Tidja was a Senior Associate at Ashurst, specialising in privacy and data breaches, novel technologies such as facial recognition software and bitcoin platforms, separation, data and technology issues in mergers and acquisitions, and negotiating technology and subsea cable contracts.

Tidja holds a Bachelor of Laws and Bachelor of Arts both from Monash University. Prior to her legal experience, Tidja obtained a tertiary qualification in science from Monash University.

Tidja is reading with Clare Cunliffe and her senior mentor is Tom Cordiner KC.

Memberships

Tarwirri Indigenous Law Student and Lawyers Association of Victoria

Intellectual Property Society of Australia and New Zealand