

Clare Exell

Clare practises in commercial litigation with particular experience in competition litigation

QUALIFICATIONS

Bachelor of Laws (Melb)
Bachelor of Commerce (Melb)

CORRESPONDENCE

P 03 9225 8558
F 03 9225 8668
E cexell@vicbar.com.au

CHAMBERS

Aickin Chambers
Level 23 Room 7
200 Queen Street
Melbourne VIC 3000

COMMERCIAL LAW

Admiralty & Maritime | Appellate | Banking & Finance | Bankruptcy | Competition | Consumer Law | Contractual Disputes | Corporate Insolvency | Corporations & Securities | Energy & Resources | Equity & Trusts | Insurance | Real Property | Residential & Retail Tenancies

EMPLOYMENT & INDUSTRIAL

Confidential Information | Restraint of Trade

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

Confidential Information

TORT LAW

Defamation | Negligence | Product Liability | Professional Negligence

PUBLIC LAW

Administrative Law | Appellate | Environment | Guardianship & Administration | Judicial Review | Planning & Local Government

She appears in a range of commercial matters including competition and consumer law disputes, maritime, environment, insolvency, equity and trusts, corporations and securities, contractual and professional negligence disputes.

Before being called to the bar, Clare was a Senior Litigation Lawyer at the Office of Fair Trading in London where she instructed on large competition appeals in the dairy, construction and tobacco industries. She also has experience in administrative, public law and consumer protection matters as well as ex parte applications. She also regularly advised on defamation and privilege issues.

Prior to practising in London, Clare was a Senior Associate at Gadens Lawyers Melbourne with a diverse commercial litigation practice which included contractual, trade practices, insurance and financial services disputes in the Federal, Supreme and County Courts.

Liability limited by a scheme approved under Professional Standards legislation

Memberships

Commercial Bar Association