Justin practises throughout Australia in commercial, administrative, regulatory and tort law, particularly in matters involving commercial fraud, directors' duties, professional negligence, and class actions.

He appears in all jurisdictions at trial and appellate levels. He also appears in Royal Commissions, inquiries, and inquests as well as urgent injunctions and freezing order applications.

Justin regularly advises government agencies and businesses particularly in highly regulated areas such as financial services, where he often works directly with in-house counsel.

Justin also regularly conducts high-level inquiries and investigations.

Before signing the Bar Roll, Justin was a senior lawyer in the law enforcement directorate of ASIC, where he was responsible for high-profile matters across all areas of ASIC's jurisdiction.
