Rudi advises and appears on behalf of companies, regulators and government agencies in commercial, public and common law matters. He has appeared in the High Court, Federal Court and state Supreme Courts. He regularly advises on complex issues in commercial and securities law, constitutional law, administrative law and statutory interpretation.

Before coming to the Bar, Rudi was an associate to the Hon Justice Hayne AC at the High Court of Australia, an associate to the Hon Justice McLeish at the Victorian Court of Appeal and was the Researcher to the Solicitor-General for Victoria (then Stephen McLeish SC). Rudi previously worked as a solicitor in commercial disputes at Minter Ellison. He is a graduate of the University of Melbourne, where he received a number of academic prizes and scholarships and was an editor of the Melbourne University Law Review.

Rudi is a reporter for the Commonwealth Law Reports. He read with Michael Borsky QC.
