Zoe Anderson is available to accept briefs in all areas of commercial and public law, including in class actions, royal commissions and inquiries, corporations law, and contractual disputes.

Prior to joining the Bar, Zoe was associate to the Honourable Justice Connock of the Supreme Court of Victoria, head judge of the Corporations List. She was previously a Trial Division Researcher at the Supreme Court of Victoria and a solicitor at Herbert Smith Freehills.

As Trial Division Researcher, Zoe completed complex legal research and analysis for all judges of the Supreme Court's Trial Division, across the commercial, common law and criminal lists. As a solicitor at Herbert Smith Freehills, Zoe worked in the commercial litigation practice group on large-scale commercial class actions and the Royal Commission into Misconduct in the Banking, Superannuation and Financial Services Industry.

Zoe holds a Juris Doctor from Melbourne Law School and a Bachelor of Arts from the University of Melbourne. She is reading with Eloise Dias and her senior mentor is Justin Graham QC.
